

FAM 357
Contemporary Adolescence
Study Guide for Exam 1

Chapter 1

- Know the approximate years of the different generations
- Be familiar with the different revolutions covered in the book
- Know the history of adolescence that we went over in class

Chapter 2

- Page 32
- Erik Erikson: know the stages as they relate to adolescence and emerging adulthood
- Piaget: know the stages as they relate to adolescence and emerging adulthood
- Understand Selman's model as it relates to adolescence and emerging adulthood
- Be familiar with Havighurst's tasks (pages 42-44)
- Know the different areas from the ecological model and be prepared to recognize examples of each (pages 45-46)
- Know the different stages of Perry's scheme of adult development
- Be familiar with the different types of brain waves we went over in class
 - How they apply to ADHD
 - Developmental notes
- Adolescent egocentrism
- Notes on critical thinking
- Dual processing theory

Chapter 3

- Limitations of low socioeconomic status
- Socialization
- Custom complex
- Spiritual development

Chapter 5

- Effects of puberty on parent/child relationship
- History of gender development
- Gender intensification hypothesis/differential gender socialization
- Problems with gender socialization
- Weight
- Eating disorders

Study suggestions: I am less concerned about memorizing facts and numbers and more interested in concepts and recognizing examples. Use the textbook to supplement the PowerPoints from class.