

Study Guide for Exam 3

Chapter 6

- Ways in which the self-concept becomes more abstract and complex
- Traits, competencies, values
- Narrative perspective of the self concept
- The six pillars of self esteem
- Baseline and barometric self esteem
- Eight domains of adolescent self-image
- Erickson's seven conflicts
- Identity statuses
- Components of identity
- Styles of identity searching
- Ethnic identity

Chapter 11

- Love relationship sequence
- Why adolescents form love relationships
- Developmental model of love
- Characteristics of sexually active adolescents
- Same-sex attraction
- Coming out
- Sex education
- Types of intimacy
- Sex and its meaning
- Contraceptives and STDs
- Adolescent mothers/fathers

Chapter 8

- Systems theory
- Adults in midlife and how it may affect adolescents
- Sibling relationships
- Parenting: What do adolescents want?
- Conflict with parents and how it changes in early adulthood

Chapter 9

- Family structure vs. family process
- Divorce and family process
- Reducing the effects of divorce
- Stepfamilies

Chapter 10

- Family and friends
- Peer pressure
- Types of adolescent societies
- Cliques
- Development of crowds
- Popularity
- Bullying
- Youth subcultures
- Material and nonmaterial concerns of adolescents

Chapter 7

- Heteronomous and Autonomous morality
- Kohlberg's stages of moral development
- Worldview's approach of moral development
- Major factors that influence pro-social behaviors
- Family factors on moral learning
- Media influence on adolescent moral behavior
- Pillars of morality